

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a high concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

BOURBONS WILL HAVE BIG RALLY TONIGHT AT LALE

Next Meeting Will Be Friday at Thomas Square to Wind Up Week's Campaign

Voters at Lale this evening will have an opportunity to hear the Democratic candidates for representatives from the fifth district, the candidate for delegate to Congress and seven candidates for the senate. The Bourbons have selected the Lale rally to wind up the week's campaign meetings, and the attendance tonight is expected to be large.

Tonight's meeting will be for the voters from Kahana bay to Kahuku and they will journey to Lale from both ways by train. The first automobile containing the candidates will leave Honolulu between 3 and 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, followed by other machines which will start from Democratic headquarters in King street.

The following candidates will speak: Delegate—L. L. McCandless. Senators—J. A. Baker, E. K. Hanapi, E. K. Lilikalan, H. N. Crabbe, C. P. Iaukea, M. C. Pacheco and A. J. Wirtz.

Representatives, fifth district—Robert Ahuna, J. H. Keawehaku, E. J. Gay, J. Kalana, William F. Mossman, J. K. Mokumala, D. Ka-li, Frank C. Benevides, William E. Miles and D. M. Kupheha.

Meetings were held on Tuesday evening at Wa'ertown and Aiea, and are reported as very successful and well attended.

Tomorrow will be an open date as far as campaign rallies are concerned, but a special meeting of voters has been called for 7:30 o'clock at Luso and Puncihowl streets.

The big meeting of the week will be held in Thomas Square at 8 o'clock next Friday evening, at which the candidates from the fourth district will be the principal speakers. A special musical program is being arranged.

REGISTRATION CLOSES WITH BIG ENROLMENT

Registration for the primary election, October 7, closed at midnight Tuesday with approximately 10,575 names enrolled. The last person to register was at 11:30 last night. During the early part of the evening the registration office was crowded with voters who had put it off until the last moment and the clerks were kept busier than they have been for a long time.

The registration this year is much heavier than in former years, and according to Henry Van Gieson, clerk, a large number were newcomers, either from the other islands or the states, and there were also many who have just reached their majority and registered for the first time.

A number put the registration off too long and when they came in this morning found the books closed.

The registration of Japanese was also larger this year but their number is not impressive as they hardly total 100.

COL. REICHMANN TRANSFERRED TO SOUTHERN DEPT.

Cable advices received today at Hawaiian Department headquarters instruct Lieut. Col. Carl Reichmann, 25th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, to report for duty in the Southern Department to its commander, Col. Reichmann will sail on the transport due here October 5.

Word has been received at headquarters of the promotion of several officers of the local department. Among these are Capt. Edward Carpenter, C. A. C., to rank of major; Capt. ## BOYS WHO HOOT POLITICIANS ARE OPEN TO ARREST

Aona Says Many Are Attending Campaign Meetings in Violation of Statute

"This hooting of candidates at political meetings by small boys who have no business being out after dark has got to stop," declared A. Kalei Aona, acting boys' probation officer, today. "One of these nights I am going to make the rounds of the meetings and arrest all boys who are under age and who are not accompanied by parents or guardians."

Aona made an investigation on Tuesday night and found a large number of boys openly violating the curfew law. He says that some of these boys are instructed to hoot at and jeer certain candidates when they get up on the platform.

"These boys are violating the law just as much as those boys who go to moving picture theaters after dark," Aona adds, "and they have got to stay home or else be arrested."

Aona already has picked one candidate to win, and that is R. W. Shingle. "You should have heard the ovation he got last night," he says.

The acting boys' probation officer is planning to make a quiet investigation this evening.

LIVELY MEETING EXPECTED FROM LOAN FUND BODY

What is anticipated as a meeting of more than passing interest is scheduled for 11 o'clock tomorrow morning when the Oahu loan fund commission assemblies to hear the report of Chairman Charles R. Forbes regarding the appointment of the five engineers for an investigation of Nuuanu dam.

As has already been printed in these columns, the five engineers sprung a surprise on the commission when they handed in a bill of $250 each—$1250 in all—for the work, the commission being of the opinion that the work was being done gratis.

Forbes will report upon the circumstances surrounding their appointment and it is possible that the engineers will be there to listen. Engineer James T. Taylor, whose bills for auto hire in the Hillebrand Glen survey were held up at the last meeting, is also expected at the meeting.

Fred Kirchhoff is likely to propose a plan for carrying out the work of laying water mains in Maunaloa in conjunction with the road improvements that have already begun in that district. It is understood that Kirchhoff hopes to get the work done without contract so that he will have stricter supervision over it and over the problems that may arise with the two gangs of men at work near together.

POLICE OFFICER IS SUSPENDED AFTER HE IS FINED BY COURT

Christian Freitas, policeman in the Ewa district, was suspended for a month upon order of Sheriff Charles H. Rose Tuesday afternoon following the conviction of Freitas in Judge Samuel Hookano's court for assault and battery upon Mrs. Freitas, his wife, and the assessment of a $50 fine. Freitas is the same officer against whom a complaint was issued about two weeks ago charging him with entering a Waipahu store and confiscating a bracelet without any lawful reason. He was not indicted, however, by the grand jury.

Rose says today that Freitas went to a luncheon in the Ewa district Saturday night while off duty, took on too much gin and proceeded home to beat his wife. Deputy Fernandez preferred charges against him in the Ewa court and obtained a conviction. Later he put into effect the order received from Rose.
